Confidentiality Statement

As an employee of The Mind and Body Consortium, LLC. you may have access to confidential information pertaining to patients, physicians, hospitals, other individuals, providers, or institutions.

It is your responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of this information at all times. Our various contracts stipulate to whom and under what circumstances information can be legally disclosed. Your involvement in protecting this information is vitally important and cannot be overemphasized.

To ensure we maintain patient confidentiality, you are not permitted to divulge, discuss, or acknowledge any information regarding patients and their families without proper authority. This also means you may not disclose patient identification or information to any of your friends, relatives, or acquaintances; the news media; any of the patient's relatives, employers, or supervisors; or anyone requesting information over the phone.

This document signifies you are aware of our policy and understand that any disclosure of unauthorized information is grounds for legal action. For unauthorized disclosure of any confidential information, you could be fined not more than $1,000 and/or imprisoned not more than six (6) months, under Section 1 166 (6) of the Social Security Act. In addition, such disclosure is grounds for immediate dismissal.

RE: CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

It is the policy of The Mind and Body Consortium, LLC. that all employees review and sign the Statement of Confidentiality annually. This policy is strictly adhered to. As employees of The Mind and Body Consortium, LLC., you have access to confidential information pertaining to patients, physicians, hospitals, other individuals, providers, or institutions. It is your responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of this information at all times.

The disclosure of unauthorized information is grounds for legal action and grounds for immediate dismissal. For unauthorized disclosure of any confidential information, you could be fined not more than $1,000 and/or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months under Section 1166 (6) of the Social Security Act.

No medical records or information may be released to any one without a signed, written authorization from the patient, parent, legal guardian or executor of the estate.

Laws may also prohibit any disclosure of the information without the specific written consent of the person(s) to whom such information pertains, or as otherwise permitted by the State law. This consent must be specific for the release of any/all HIV information.
